CHRISTOPHER ULIVO

11 February 2005 - 12 March 2005

Susan Inglett is pleased to present the work of CHRISTOPHER ULIVO from 11 February to 12 March 2005. There will be an opening reception for the artist Friday evening 11 February from 6 to 8 PM.

"To work, a story doesn't have to be real - it has to be true".

Orson Welles

Christopher Ulivo's paintings on paper are indeed true. Narratives woven from a wealth of colorful detail and complexity, they could be nothing less. In this body of work, Ulivo creates a parallel universe as multidimensional as our own. Here humble woodsmen roam the borderlands of a primeval occidental forest. This ancient unforgiving landscape proves a formidable match for its rough hewn inhabitants. Vainly they work towards taming their surroundings and mastering their universe. As viewers, we look helplessly on all too aware of the tenuous nature of the struggle and the long journey ahead.

The exhibition will be on view at Susan Inglett Gallery located 535 West 22 Street/6 Floor Tuesday to Saturday 10 AM to 6 PM. For additional information please contact Susan Inglett at 212/647-9111, fax 212/647-9333 or info@inglettgallery.com.
