NOW SHOWING #174: The week's top exhibitions

American Histories, Pi Artworks, London

This show brings together nine artists, all based in the United States, who explore cultural histories through figurative works on paper. In what seems particularly timely considering the current climate of political discord over issues of tolerance, these artists stand up for notions of pluralism and acceptance. The featured artists are: Kenseth Armstead, Firelei Báez, Maria Berrio, Chitra Ganesh, Fay Ku, Lina Puerta, Frohawk Two Feathers, William Villalongo, and Saya Wolfalk.

Until 7 January 2017. www.piartworks.com
