ERIK SANDBERG

21 April 2005 - 21 May 2005

Susan Inglett is pleased to present the work of ERIK SANDBERG from 21 April 2005 to 21 May 2005. There will be an opening reception Thursday evening 21 April from 6 to 8 PM.

"The master of the monstrous...the discoverer of the unconscious".

Carl Gustav Jung on Hieronymus Bosch

Originally written to describe the work of 15th century Flemish Master Hieronymus Bosch, this passage could as easily describe the work of contemporary painter, Erik Sandberg. Working in times of great social and political upheaval, each artist expresses the terror and anxiety of the Age. Sandberg captures the stuff of nightmares and the evening news with a surgical precision which is at once stunningly beautiful and horrifying. In these jewel like narrative paintings the artist renders the human condition of human flesh - complex, passionate and vulnerable. This is Erik Sandberg's first solo exhibition in New York.

The exhibition will be on view at Susan Inglett Gallery located 535 West 22 Street/6 Floor Tuesday to Saturday 10 AM to 6 PM. For additional information please contact Susan Inglett at 212/647-9111, fax 212/647-9333 or info@inglettgallery.com.
