10 PICKS FROM THE DALLAS ART FAIR 2015

Colby Bird, House Lamp, 2014. Wood, paint, PVC foam, screws, wiring, light fixtures, and light bulbs. 21 x 8 x 7.5 in. Photo: Courtesy of Halsey McKay Gallery, East Hampton.

This sculpture is a functional lamp, one in an ongoing series of hundreds by New York-based artist Colby Bird (born 1978). He fashions them out of found objects, "cobbled together," Halsey McKay gallerist Ryan Wallace says. "He finds things and figures out how to make it work."
